

ACGME Notice of Data Sharing Policy

Effective 07/01/2024

Reaffirmed by GMEC 12/13/2024

The Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) may share accredited trainee data with certifying boards. These data points may include the last four digits of a trainee's social security number and Milestone data. A resident or fellow appointed to an ACGME-accredited program should engage with their Program Director if they have any concerns.
